2012 = Fruitfulness

When looking to Jesus for 2012 the word 'fruitfulness' came to me. In John 15:16, Jesus reminded the disciples: "I chose you and appointed you that you would go and bear fruit and that your fruit would remain". That is Jesus' mandate to us as believers. Too few are actually fulfilling this command by producing fruit that remains.

In Acts we read about God adding daily to His church. How could this happen? There are three groups of people that make up a local congregation. Each group participates in the life of the church on different levels.

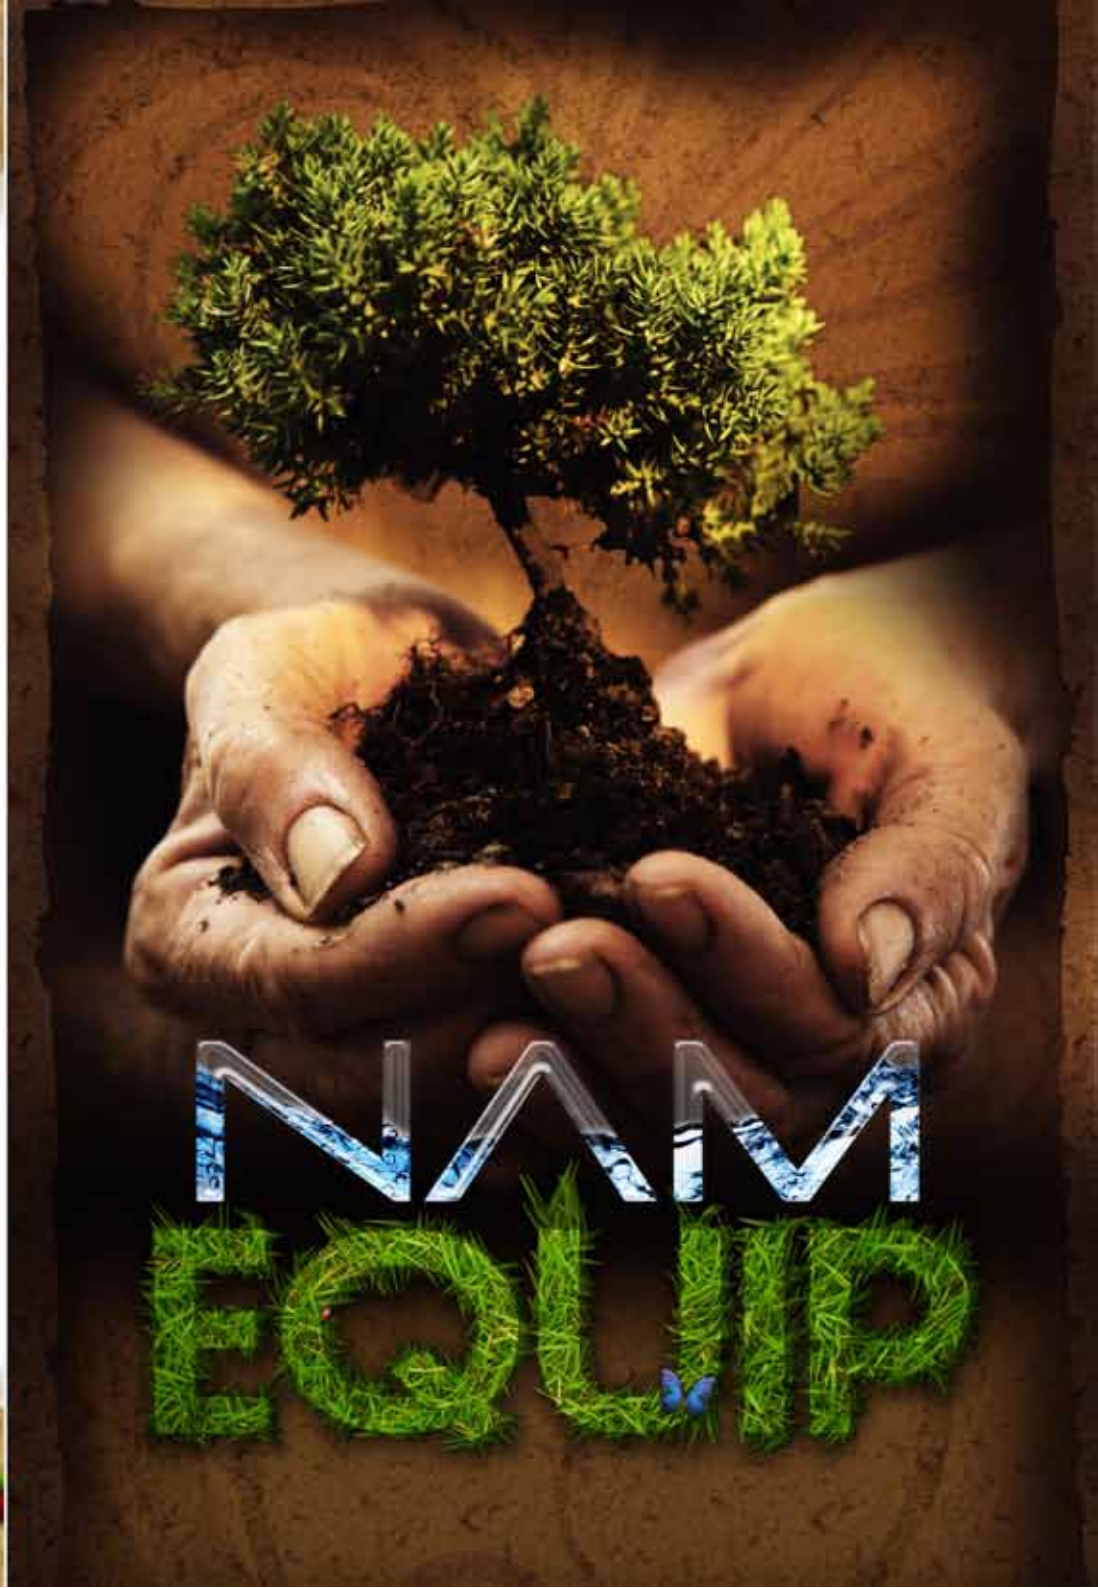

- Group one is made up of attendees; you see them now and then on a Sunday.

- The people in the second group are the ones who see themselves as members and are committed to weekly meetings as well as a home group. They are progressing towards discipleship but there is a lack of walking in the Spirit as well as carrying a burden for the lost. They have not yet seen the necessity to disciple someone because they miss the fruitfulness in their own lives.

- The third group is made up of disciples who are willing to break free from selfish patterns and allow the Lord to prune them for more fruitfulness. This is how the dead wood is taken care of so that fruit can be produced: by taking care of others. This kind of fruitfulness is not left to some spiritual superstars – it is for everyone who calls himself a follower of Jesus Christ.

For All Nations to be a new covenant church, the focus needs to be on making disciples, a sign of a healthy and growing church. When we get a clear concept of the New Testament church in our own minds, what seems abnormal will become normal. It is then the pressure of performance will cease. By abiding in the Vine the increase will come naturally because it is the Vine not the branches that produce the fruit!

THERE MUST BE MORE THAN THIS

by Tim Hughes

There must be more than this, O breath of God come breathe within
There must be more than this, Spirit of God we wait for You
Fill us anew we pray, Fill us anew we pray

Consuming fire, fan into flame

A passion for your name

Spirit of God, fall in this place

Lord have your way, Lord have your way, With Us

Come like a rushing wind; Clothe us with power from on high

Now set the captives free; Leave us abandoned to your praise

Lord let your glory fall; Lord let your glory fall
